UBUNTU, HUMAN DIGNITY AND A DECENT SOCIETY

Date: Tuesday 31 August 2021  Time: 16:00-17:30 (SAST), 10:00-11:30 (EDT)

Ubuntu Dialogues Seminar Exchange Fellow:
Dr Motsamai Molefe

Motsamai Molefe holds a PhD in Philosophy, specialising in African philosophy, applied ethics, African and Western ethics, and social and political philosophy. He is a senior researcher at the Centre for Leadership in Ethics (CLEA) at the University of Fort Hare, and serves on the Advisory Board of The Global Philosophy of Religion Project (2020-2023).

Respondent: Prof Nontobeko Moyo

Prof Otrude Nontobeko Moyo is Director of the School of Social Work at Indiana University — South Bend, USA. Her scholarship focuses on social development issues in Southern Africa, racism in human services and higher education, everyday violence, decoloniality and social change as it pertains to Southern Africa, Africans in the diaspora and indigenous communities. In 2019, Dr Moyo was awarded the Carnegie African Diaspora Fellowship to work in collaboration with the Department of Social Work at the University of Fort Hare.

https://ubuntudialogues.org.za